	7				·
MEMOR	ANDUM FOR:	Deputy Director	for Admi	nistration		5
FROM:		Director of Sec	urity
SUBJE	CT:	Office of Secur Week of 14 Augu	ity Signi st 1980 (ficant Activiti U)	es
REFER	ENCE:	DDA Administrat	ive Instr	ruction No. 74-5	· .
	1. This me	morandum is for	informati	on only.		9
of 14	2. The act - 20 1980	ivities of the O were highlighted	ffice of by the f	Security during ollowing items:	the week in a number contractor construction From inform we may expended and invited by the comment of th	resentatives of of meetings with to determine tem n start dates, a ation furnished ct fencing to sta be completed with e placed on site ce in two to thre for the guard for U)	h the porary 11 nd fencin by the prart durin hin two weeks.	gnting requirem g start dates. ime contractor, g this reportin eeks. Trailers g for the build The clearance	ents,	25X1
	met with the	13 August. a memle e urvey several bus ascertain which	ildings		ble	25X1 25X1
L				(2)		25X1
INTEL	RNING NOTICE LIGENCE SOUPCES METHODS INVOLVED	1 2 1

OS 0 2160

d. On 13 August, a representative of the Technical Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff Concerning starility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repre-
Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repre- sentative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repre- sentative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data
Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data
Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data
Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data
Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repre- sentative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repre- sentative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Security Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat Briefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache Course at the Defense Intelligence School. (C) e. On 19 August, the monthly OS/ODP Working Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repre- sentative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	d. On 13 August, a representative of the Technical
Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff	Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	Group meeting was held. The agenda items included the topics for the briefing of the Directors of Security and Data Processing on 17 September, control of Z tapes, and a presentation by a representative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff concerning sterility code considerations in data	ecurity Division presented a Hostile Audio Threat riefing to 30 persons attending the Defense Attache roup meeting was held. The agenda items included he topics for the briefing of the Directors of ecurity and Data Processing on 17 September, ontrol of Z tapes, and a presentation by a repreentative of the Office of Logistics Security Staff

SUBJECT: Office of Security Significant Activities Week of 14 August 1980

Distribution:

Orig & 2 - Adse

1 - D/Security 1 - DD/PSI 1 - DD/CA

1 - DD/PTOS ① - OS Registry 1 - PPG Chrono

25X1 OS/P&M/PPG

21 August 1500